Administration

"The most competent administration . . ."

—Jefferson.

The success of the past year has been due in large part to the administrators of our school. The administration of the El Dorado Public Schools, by means of wise policies formulated for the best interests of the students, has guided all "Juco-ites" through the year of 1950-51. These public-minded El Doradoans, giving freely of their time and energy in order to maintain good schools, deserve the sincere thanks of the student body of the El Dorado Junior College.

Seated, left to right: Mrs. Ruth Flanagan (clerk), Dr. R. J. Metcalf, Dr. G. E. Kassebaum, and Glenn Tarrant. Standing: George S. Benson, Jr., Virgil Tyler, Walter Cary (president), and Clarence Wilke (vice-president).

MAX BICKFORD
Dean of the El Dorado
Junior College

Faculty

"And gladly wolde he lerne and gladly teche."

—Chaucer.

There are many fancy, three-syllable words that might be used on this page—and what could be more appropriate for the faculty? However, to express the sincere gratitude of the student body, there can be only one word, "Thanks." All the "dark looks" that have been exchanged have been forgotten in the memories of good work and good times shared. Juco-ites will always remember this group of men and women—not only as teachers, but also as friends.

Sophomores

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding."—Proverbs.

The members of the Sophomore Class have completed their two years of schooling at the El Dorado Junior College. Following the custom of the sophomore classes, this group sponsored the freshman initiation, endeavored to acquaint the new students with the school, and participated in the numerous activities of the school.

Order Of The Purple

"Genius is one per cent inspiration and ninety-nine per cent perspiration."

—Edison.

These graduating sophomores have worked hard and long to achieve the honor of membership in the Order of the Purple. Not only have they proved their scholastic ability, but they have also exhibited well-rounded personalities; for the criteria of such membership is based on scholarship, service, leadership and character.

Freshmen

The following freshmen are not pictured on the following pages: William Baker, Ron Ball, Mrs. Andy Barlett, Don Beam, Jack Bowers, Pat Brazil, Russell Brooks, Charles Brown, Robert Cabeen, Betty Cantrell, Bill Edwards, Wesley Faires, Bill Fennell, George Gamble, Lloyd Greenwell, Mrs. Dorothy Holladay, Ed Jones, Fred Jones, Carl Lemon, Tom Locke, Burtis Long, Richard Man-nion, Jack Mertz, Jack McDonald, Pat McIntire, Dick Oblander, Harold Parker, Jim Poe, Ramon Romanzi, Kenneth Sanders, Edith Sharp, Frank Stackley, Dixon Swaney, Dick Tarrant, and Sheila Waite.

Classroom Shots

"The lesson is but plain . . ."—Shakespeare

W. M. Grove and the Physics Class (above) work out a solution to one of the many problems that are encountered in this course.

Future teachers (below) listen to Carl C. Riggs as he lectures to the Teacher Training Class, a class offered at Juco this year for the first time in several years.

Varsity Club

The chief purpose of the Varsity Club is to honor athletes who have lettered in at least one sport at the El Dorado Junior College. Officers this year have been Allen Taylor, president; Bill Butterworth, vice-president; and Gene Dorland, secretary-treasurer. Coach Bob Douglass is sponsor.

This year, the activities of the club have included running concession stands at basketball games, buying materials and building the trophy case in the office, and making the football board now located in the Den. As this book goes to press, tentative plans are being made for a picnic and for a party.

At the time of this writing, the following men are prospective lettermen in track: Pat Brazil, Jim Cameron, Wesley Faires and George Gamble. The following members of the Varsity Club are not pictured above: Jack Bowers, Bill Day, Jerry Demo, Kendall Dennis, Wesley Faires, Ray Harvey, Reese Hess, Carl Lemon, Charles LeNormand, Jack McDonald, Calvin McMillan, David Matheny, Harold Parker, Wesley Pletcher, Jerry Reiserer, Richard Rhodes, Merle Snider, Frank Stackley, Bob Wallace, Eddie Williams, and Dick Yarmer.

Football

"Heaven prosper our sport!"—Shakespeare.

The football season of 1950 was the most successful Juco has ever enjoyed. The college was represented on the gridiron by a streamlined "T" offense and a stone-walled defense. Given these ingredients, Coach Bob Douglass, ably assisted by Jim Edwards, rounded the boys into an outstanding ball club.

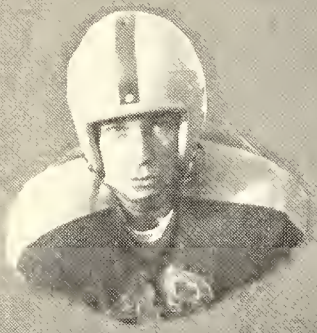

The Grizzly team powered their way through their first seven opponents, scoring 256 points to 7 for the opposition. Then, for the first time in almost a decade, the Grizzlies outfought the Hutchinson Blue Dragons 14-6. In the last game of the regular season, the Bears lost a heartbreaking upset to the strong Bronc-Busters of Garden City, 32-7.

Ranking near the top in the national Junior College ratings, the Grizzlies received feeler bids to play in the Juco Rose Bowl at Pasadena, California, the Juco Sugar Bowl at Monroe, Louisiana, the Texas Rose Bowl at Tyler, Texas, and several minor bowls.

Finally accepting a bid to meet the powerful Red Ravens of Coffeyville in the annual Coffee Bowl classic, El Dorado emerged victorious by a score of 12-9.

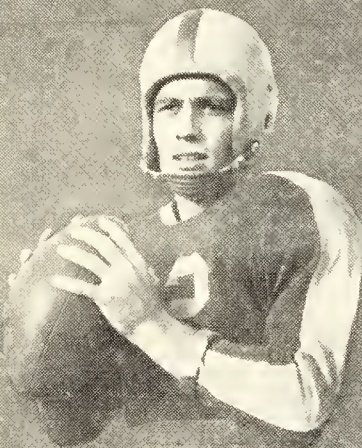

At season's end, Coach Douglass presented 27 men with letter awards.

Queen and Attendants

"Blessed with that charm, the certainty to please . . ."—Rogers.

Reigning with charm and grace, Miss Connie Godfrey presided over the homecoming game, which ended a most successful season of football. Elected by the football squad, Connie and her two attendants, Betty Bracken (left) and Patty Lewis (right), reflect that true spirit of loyalty and friendship represented in El Dorado Juco. Later, the same three girls were chosen in the same order by the basketball squad in an election to select a basketball queen.

Pep Club

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."—Emerson.

The Gold Diggers, a group which promotes good sportsmanship and enthusiasm during athletic activities, this year elected the following officers: Becky Breese, president; Caroline Dixon, vice-president; Carol Seglem, secretary-treasurer; Iris Henman Lawrence, business manager; and Pat Kunkle, student council representative. The club has been unusually active this year, sponsoring, among others, the following activities: the Coronation of the Football Homecoming Queen, a Hallowe'en party, the decoration of the halls at Christmas, and the Coronation of the Basketball Queen.

This quotation indeed describes the activities of this year's cheerleaders, pictured at the left with Gruffy T. Grizzly. Seated, from left to right, are John Komer, Tharon Baumann, and Wayne Lewis. The girls are Jean Bell, Mary Beth Spinden, and Betty Bracken.

Basketball

"Play up, play up, and play the game!"—Newbolt.

As in past years, the Junior College was again represented on the maple-woods by a tall, hard-fighting quintet. Sporting a season's record of 10 wins and 12 losses, the Grizzlies several times surprised the "experts" and the opposition by upsetting the dope and emerging victorious over teams ranking high in the conference standing. Included among the Grizzly wins were a 35-33 win over Hutchinson and a 55-49 triumph over the Eastern Conference winner, Independence.

Completing their regular season in a tie for fourth in the conference, the Bears again entered the annual A.A.U. meet at Wichita. Playing against the best Kansas has to offer, the Juco team defeated the Newton Miller Produce and the Goddard Athletic Club before losing to the McPherson Legion, the eventual champion. For their attitude in this tournament, the Grizzlies were presented with the team sportsmanship trophy. Reese Hess, captain, and Harold Parker were also given Honorable Mention on the All A.A.U. team. Hess and Jack Bowers were given additional honors by being named on the All-Conference second team.

While the season's record was not a winning one, Coach Bill Hill and the Juco players deserve a great deal of credit for giving the college an aggregation of which it can be proud.

Intramurals

"This is a sport which makes the body's very liver curl with enjoyment."
—Twain.

The purpose of intramural basketball is to encourage participation in athletics by those boys not playing on the varsity squad. Because of the instability of enrollment the second semester, no tournament play was held. Following are the results of the double round robin tournament which was played:

Track

"The swifter speed the better. . . ."—Shakespeare.

At the first signs of spring, the men of Juco donned their track warm-ups and started limbering up and getting in shape for their first meet at Hutchinson.

With several returning lettermen from last year's team, which was runner-up in the state meet, and with the able coaching of Bob Douglass, the 1951 team has high hopes for a good season. The tracksters of E. J. C. are firing for the state championship this year, and all Juco fans hope they make it.

Among the lettermen who are returning, are such men as Bill Butterworth, who was last year's winner of the state junior college 220 low hurdles and who tied for first in high jump; Kendall Dennis, who won second in the 440-yard dash and fourth in the 880-yard run at the state meet; Bob Harsh, winner of fourth place in the 440-yard dash in the state meet; and Arnold Weber, fourth in javelin throw in the state meet. Other returning lettermen who are expected to better their own records this year are: Gene Dorland, discus throw and 880-yard relay; Tharon Baumann, 440-yard dash and mile relay; Bill Day, discus throw; Bill Hollis, 880-yard run and medley relay; and Jerry Demo, 440-yard dash and medley relay.

In addition to the lettermen, some of the first-year men should go great guns: Bob Cabeen, 100 and 200-yard dashes and 880-yard relay; Wesley Faires, 880-yard run; Jim Cameron, mile run; Louis Alfaro, 880-yard run; George Gamble, high jump and broad jump; Ray Romanzi, mile run and pole vault; Wesley Pletcher, pole vault and high jump; Frank Stackley, discus throw, shot put, and javelin throw; John Komer, mile run; and Allen Taylor, shot put and discus throw.

Debate and Speech

"Much might be said on both sides."—Addison.

El Dorado Junior College has had an outstanding debate squad, this year of '50-51. Members of the Phi Rho Pi society, the debaters have participated in seven tournaments, finishing in the upper brackets each time. By taking part in the various tournaments and by conducting the Speech Festival in April, the debaters have furthered the objective of Phi Rho Pi: to encourage and aid all speech and forensic activities.

Tournaments attended were: Hutchinson Juco Invitational Tournament; Pittsburg State Teachers College Invitational Tournament; McPherson College Economy Tournament; Southwestern College Invitational Tournament, Emporia; St. John's Tournament, Winfield; Phi Rho Pi Regional, Winfield; Kansas Junior College Speech Festival, El Dorado. In the last named tournament, El Dorado debate teams won the first three places. At the time of this writing, word has just been received that at the Phi Rho Pi Nationals at Houston, Texas, Matheny and Demo placed first in Debate, and McMillan and Barber placed second. In individual events, Matheny won first in two events, Impromptu Speaking and After-Dinner Speaking; McMillan won first in Declamation; and Demo won second in Extemporaneous Speaking. Total points gave the El Dorado group second in the sweepstakes.

The picture below was taken at the dinner honoring entrants in the third annual State Junior College Speech Festival, held at El Dorado on April 6 and 7, with these schools represented: Hutchinson, Pratt, Arkansas City, Iola, Coffeyville, and El Dorado.

Band

"Wilt thou have music?"—Shakespeare.

The gratitude of the student body is extended to Mr. R. W. Wallingford and to the members of the Pep Band. "Snappy" in white coveralls, this group played at all football and basketball games, adding to the enjoyment of these sports.

Chorus

"Music is the universal language of mankind."—Longfellow.

Congratulations are in order for Miss Jeanette Barbour and the Mixed Chorus for the special "luster" which they have contributed to life at Juco. Highlighted by the fall tour, this group also participated in the Christmas program, the Easter Cantata, and in Juco assembly programs. The Chorus met two evenings a week in order to practice for appearances, and for the pleasure of singing together.

Student Nurses

"When ill, we call them to attend us."—Byron.

Student nurses at the Susan B. Allen Memorial Hospital must be high school graduates, preferably of better-than-average scholastic standing. First in the three-year course comes the six-months pre-clinical period, during which time the students receive training at the local hospital and study the following courses at the El Dorado Junior College: anatomy, physiology, psychology, nutrition and cookery, and sociology. At the close of this pre-clinical period, the students receive their caps. During the remainder of the nursing course, besides continuing training at the home hospital, the prospective nurses go to the Children's Mercy Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri, for a three-months course in pediatrics, and to the St. Louis City Hospital for a three months course in psychiatry.

Leadership for the 1950-51 Student Nurses' Organization was furnished by Jean Reese, president; Delores Clark, secretary-treasurer; Joyce Biddleman, student-representative; and Miss Flemming, class sponsor. Special activities during the year have been the February Capping Ceremony, the annual party sponsored by the Graduate Nurses Club, a Christmas caroling party, and skating parties at the local rink. In the new nurses' home, a rumpus room, containing a pingpong table and a radio-victrola, will be the center of social activities.

Journalism Club

"... news, old news, and such news as you never heard of!"—Shakespeare.

Science Club

"For Science is . . . like virtue, its own exceeding great reward."—Kingsley.

The Science Club, which promotes scientific interest among its members, elected as officers the following: Bruce Bell, president; Jim Barber, vice-president; John Coffman, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Moore, student council representative. Projects for the year were photography, grinding of the telescope lens, and electroplating.

On the table and in the limelight: "Butch."

Yearbook King and Queen

"When I am king and you are queen . . . ."—Shiras.

At the Yearbook Party, sponsored by the Yearbook Staff, Marjorie Ruckert and Bill Butterworth, two of Juco's most popular and capable students, were chosen to reign over the Grizzly Growl of 1951. All E. J. C. is proud to have Marjorie and Bill represent the friendliness and graciousness of the school.

GRIZZLY STAFF

"Ah, happy years. . . ."—Byron

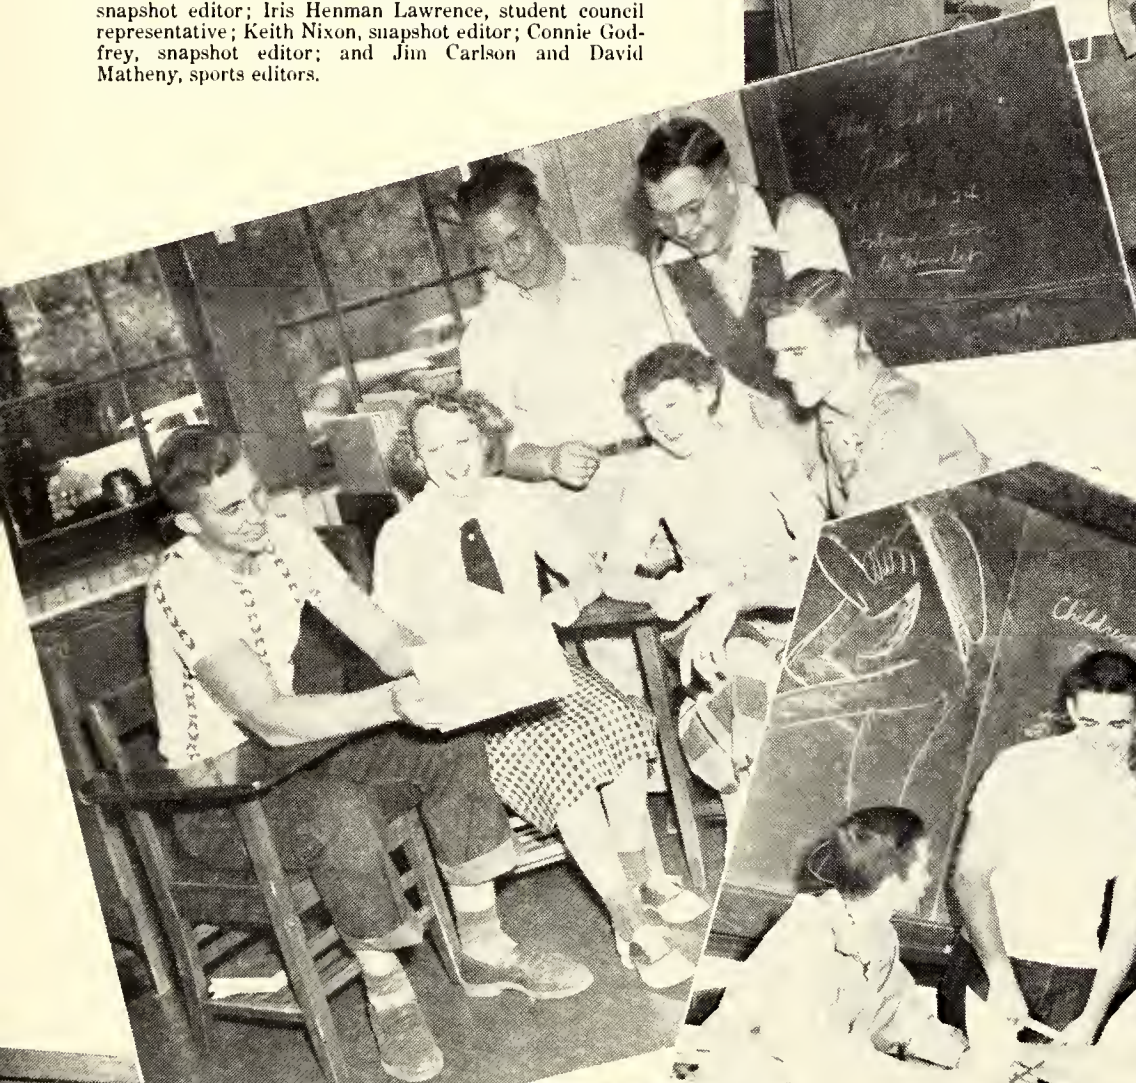

The annual staff is proud to present this collection of memories for all 1950-51 Juco students.

Rushing to make the first purchase of Student Directories as Margaret Thompson, editor, sells them, are Caroline Dixon, feature writer; Carl Parsons, sports editor; Maryanna Burger, art editor; Dick Meyer, sports editor; and Mary Beth Spinden, business manager.

Gene Beever, photographer, explains his camera, to the amusement of Gerry Buhler, feature writer; Bill Hollis, snapshot editor; Iris Henman Lawrence, student council representative; Keith Nixon, snapshot editor; Connie Godfrey, snapshot editor; and Jim Carlson and David Matheny, sports editors.

The entire staff wishes to extend appreciation to Duane Graham for his assistance in planning this 1951 issue of the "Grizzly Growl."
